Agenda:

Update on Subcommittees

- Initial Appearance Court
 - Director Marcie McMahon said that IA Court is working well and there are currently no known challenges.
 - ADA Lalli and Director McMahon discussed the development of a matrix in their subcommittee in conjunction with the risk assessment tool.
- Improve Responses to Probation Violators
 - The committee met on December 4. Items discussed were discharge of probationers and the process.

- Rich Suey has started a smaller working group to look at the procedures for arresting probationers who come into contact with police for minimal violations of their probation such as curfew violations that sit in custody for 4 days and eventually end up with an NCF.
- Enhance Services for Justice Involved Individuals with Behavioral Health/Homelessness
 - Judge Linda Bell stated that Wellpath's new doctor is currently doing an amazing job, regarding consistency with competency issues.
 - Chief Meyer states that suicide attempts have decreased by 22% due to having two doctors and their wealth of knowledge in the competency area.
- Domestic Violence Court
 - Jeff Wells said that the September meeting of this subcommittee was the day after the Supreme Court's decision in the Andersen case, which will require full jury trials for misdemeanor domestic violence cases.
 - No meeting was set so that data could be tracked.
 - Currently many are being calendared each week. Approximately 20 have been placed on the calendar through February. Gaps in the calendar are being filled in as needed.
 - Many are being resolved, dismissed or continued.
- Needs Assessment at Booking
 - Social Services is willing to do outreach. Waiting on MOU with Hughes grant covers the release of information to social services. After that is completed the assessments will be provided to social services.
- Safety Justice Challenge (SJC)
 - For 2018 ADP is at 3711 as of 11/30, which is down 2% from baseline.
 - Suey provided up to date stats to the group.
