CRIMINAL COMPLAINTS FILED AGAINST DEFENDANTS CAUSING DEATH OF BICYCLIST ANDREAS PROBST

This morning, Criminal Complaints were filed against Defendants Jesus Ayala and Jzmir Keys for the crime of Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon concerning the unfortunate and inexcusable event that took the life of Andreas Probst.

Defendant Ayala was also charged with several other felonies, including Battery with use of a Deadly Weapon, Attempt Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon, Duty to Stop at Scene of Crash, Leaving the Scene of a Crash, Possession of Stolen Vehicle, and Possession of a Burglary Tool. Defendant Keys was also charged with Battery with use of a Deadly Weapon and Attempt Murder with use of a Deadly Weapon.

These Defendants will be formally arraigned on these charges tomorrow, September 26, 2023. At this hearing, the Clark County District Attorney's Office will be addressing their custody status.

"The behavior exhibited by Defendants Ayala and Keys is outrageous and cannot be tolerated in this community. People riding bicycles should feel safe and secure and should not be subjected to criminals who put their lives at risk. Justice will be served." said Clark County District Attorney Steve Wolfson.
