Recap of Prior elections from 1988 to 1992

Primary Election 1988:

*"Despite complaints of absentee ballot fraud from three West Las Vegas legislators, the Clark County Commission certified the results of the primary election Friday and praised the election department for doing a good job. Meanwhile, election department officials said the three legislators may have a valid complaint, but not against them."

Las Vegas SUN September 10, 1988

General Election 1988

*"Thousands of Las Vegans stood in a block-long line outside the Clark County Election Department Tuesday evening waiting to vote. Voters were asked to cast their ballots at the Election Department if their addresses had changed since they had registered. Most people waited patiently, although some would-be voters dropped out of line before reaching the department's voting booths."

Las Vegas SUN November 9, 1988

General Election 1988

*"Tired feet and restless babies did not stop about 2,400 people from standing in line for up to three hours Tuesday so they could vote at the Election Department."

Review Journal November 9, 1988

General Election 1988

*"Secretary of State Frankie Sue Del Papa said Wednesday that her department will be offering a legislative package of election reforms after hundreds of Clark County voters were forced to wait for hours in a long line Tuesday to vote."
