Budget/Personnel Update

- Mr. Humphries stated that the budget is coming to a close in June.
- Physical & written exam were done last week for JPO I/II position(s). We have some great candidates.
- DRRP has been moved back to the Probation Division and has been renamed to the Probation Review & Release Program.

Juvenile Detention Reform

- Mr. Humphries stated that there has been a lot of work done with Juvenile Detention Reform. Mr. Humphries briefly discussed his handout with committee members.

Juvenile Justice Programming

- Nothing to report.

X. Public Comments

- Tom Maroney stated that the Ropes Course will have twenty Instructors. First course was held on June 4, 2013. The Ropes Course will help with team building.
- Nevada Partners Vocational Programs will be working with Juvenile Justice Services. Youth will be able to start the Culinary Program at SMYC and then transfer to Nevada Partners. There will also be a Welding Program. This is great as it will help youth transition into the workforce with a skill.
- Mr. Maroney stated that Project Soar will be resumed. The National Guard now has monies to fund Project Soar. Youth will be taken through a military structure course. The process will be explained to the parents and if they do not want their child to participate then they will not. This is a high energy program for the youth. Previously Project Soar had twenty-four boys and girls at a time. Hopefully the Clark County Marshalls will be available to participate with Project Soar. All youth have to pass a physical before participating.
- Judge Voy is teaming up with the Children's Service Guild to possibly create a place for female teen prostitutes. Louise Helton stated that she knows a person that may be able to provide more information regarding this matter. Leisa Moseley also stated that the Purple Wings Organization can also be of assistance with regards to teen prostitution
