Overview

The Clark County Law Library was created in 1923 by the enactment of Ordinance #1 and is statutorily mandated by NRS 380. The Law Library provides free access to legal resources to the residents of Southern Nevada and is open to the public. We are funded by a portion of District Civil Court filing fees along with a small portion of Justice Court filing fees, circulation dues, court-ordered contributions, and photocopy usage.

The Law Library is governed by a seven-member Board of Trustees currently composed of three District Court judges (appointed by the Chief Judge), one attorney and three non-attorneys (appointed by the Clark County Board of Commissioners), all of whom serve without compensation. The Clark County Law Library Board of Trustees is committed to public service through the free legal information resources made available to every resident in Clark County.

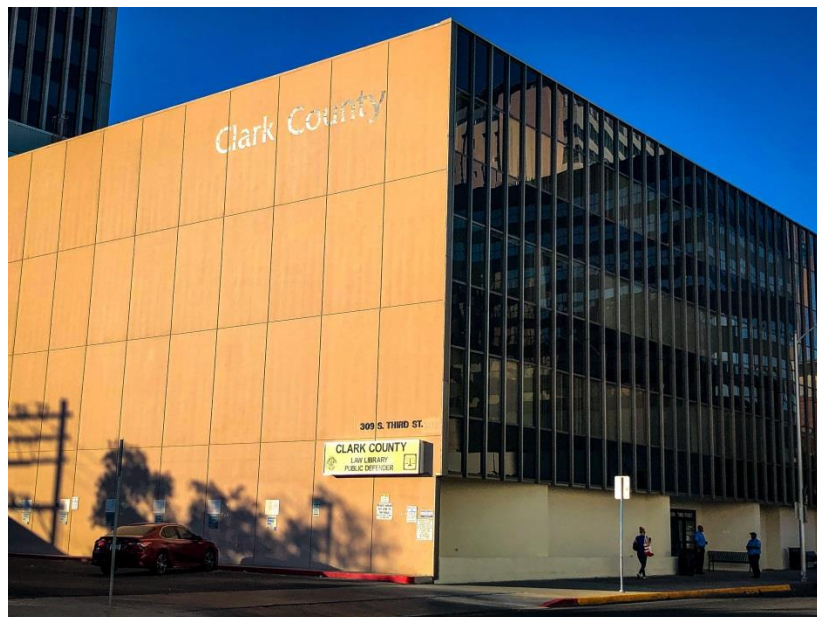

Regular operating hours for the Clark County Law Library are Monday – Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

VISION STATEMENT

To facilitate access to justice through access to information.

Unaudited Revenue/Expenditures

The primary source of funding for the Clark County Law Library comes from a portion of selected Eighth Judicial District Court civil filings as stated in Clark County Code 18.08.030(1) in the amount of $30 per civil action. Additionally, we receive a small portion of selected Justice Court civil filings as stated in Clark County Code 18.08.030(2) in the amount of $3 per selected civil action. Approximately 74% of the Law Library's revenue was derived from both District Court civil filing fees, which totaled $991,415.16, and Justice Court civil filing fees in the amount of $140,625.00 in Fiscal Year 2024. Other revenue is derived from library revenue, which includes circulation fees, fines, court-ordered sanctions, donations, and photocopies. Interest income is also included as a revenue source. Below is an unaudited summary of both revenue and expenditures for the Law Library in Fiscal Year 2024.

Circulation Statistics

Circulation of Law Library material is limited to active members of the Nevada State Bar, judicial staff, and governmental agencies that have a valid circulation card and are in good standing with the Law Library.

To obtain a circulation card, an individual must fill out a Borrower Registration Card, either in person at the Law Library or on the Law Library's website at www.ClarkCountyNV.Gov/LawLibrary. Along with the registration card, there is a one-time $50.00 registration fee. The circulation card is then valid for one year from the date of purchase and can be renewed annually for $30.00 each year thereafter.

In Fiscal Year 2024, we circulated 66 materials, with 89 circulation period renewals. Two attorneys signed up for a new circulation card and 13 attorneys renewed their circulation card.

Library Collection

The Clark County Law Library has a total of 175,610 physical materials in its collection, including books, microfilm, and audio/video/other media. In addition to print materials, the Law Library offers free usage of hundreds of thousands of legal resources through its database subscriptions from Lexis Advance, Westlaw Next, M-Law, HeinOnline and Trellis.

Lexis Advance and Westlaw Next are great for researching caselaw, statutes, court rules and select secondary materials. Trellis is best for researching local court cases and judge analytics. M-Law is good for researching family law matters and includes a child support calculator. And HeinOnline is used for researching law journals and special collections on a variety of topics.

The Law Library also now has 1,354 volumes in its Lexis Digital Library. 4 volumes from the collection are currently in "lost" status.

Donations

The Law Library received donations of books and monetary gifts in FY2024. These donations include:

- $1,039 in monetary gifts
- 27 volumes of books

Generous donations such as these assist the Law Library in its mission to provide access to the most recent precedents and the best available commentary regarding legal issues.
