CLARK COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE ANNOUNCES KEY PROMOTIONS

The Clark County District Attorney's Office is announcing the retirement of two dedicated Assistant District Attorneys, as well as the appointment of two new Assistant District Attorneys. After thirty (30) years of service, Assistant District Attorneys Christopher J. Lalli and Robert Daskas have retired from their positions. During their tenure, they demonstrated exceptional dedication, expertise, and commitment to justice. Their contributions to the office and the community will be deeply missed. "We are grateful for the tireless efforts and sacrifices made by Christopher and Robert during their time with our office," said District Attorney Steve Wolfson. "Their legacy will continue to inspire and motivate our team."

As we bid farewell to Chris and Robert, we are also pleased to welcome their replacements. Alex Chen and Pam Weckerly have been appointed to the positions of Assistant District Attorney. Both bring many years of experience and a true dedication to justice to these positions. Ms. Weckerly represents the first female to become an Assistant District Attorney in our criminal division.

"We are thrilled to have Alex and Pam as our new Assistant District Attorneys," said District Attorney Steve Wolfson. "Their expertise and passion for justice will be invaluable assets to our office and the community." Please join us in congratulating our new Assistant District Attorneys and wishing our retired colleagues all the best in their future endeavors.
