On Saturday, April 9th, Clark County Parks and Recreation hosted a dedication event for ZAP! 11 during the Robert E. “Bob” Price Recreation Center’s Easter Celebration. Commissioner Marilyn Kirkpatrick recognized the six artists who participated in ZAP! 11. The commissioner also presented certificate of appreciation to Clark County Poet Laureate, Heather Land-Cassera, and the four ladies who collaborated on the poems now painted on the grounds of the pickle ball court.

The Public Art booth also held a raffle for photos of the painted ZAP! 11 boxes which were signed by the artists. Along with the raffle, the Public Art booth also scattered plastic eggs near each box site with an instant winning note inside.
