The Big Game Starts and Ends at LAS

Super Bowl LVIII Travel Tips from Harry Reid International Airport

Harry Reid International Airport (LAS) is ready to kick off an exciting Super Bowl weekend in Las Vegas as San Francisco and Kansas City fans arrive to cheer on their favorite team. Once a new champion is crowned, the airport is preparing for an influx of fans heading home. Know before you go by checking: harryreidairport.com/superbowl.

Arriving in Las Vegas: February 8-10

High volumes of fans are expected to arrive in the days leading up to the game. Planning ahead can help save time and get visitors started on their Las Vegas weekend.

- Many resorts will have check-in options in baggage claim, allowing their customers to avoid lines at their destination. Check with your hotel to see if they are offering this service.
- During peak periods, rideshares and taxis will be in high-demand.
- The Airport Rent-A-Car Center is a short shuttle ride from the terminals, but reservations for the cars should be made in advance.

Leaving Las Vegas: February 11-13

The day after the Super Bowl will see a high volume of passengers departing LAS. The airport is providing the following travel tips for a smoother departing experience.

4-3-2-1: The Winning Game Plan

- 4 Hours Before Departure: Start planning your trip to the airport, look at traffic conditions and average wait times for rideshares. Return your rental car.
- 3 Hours Before Departure: Arrive at the airport! Check your bags with your airline.
- 2 Hours Before Departure: Get in line at the security checkpoint.
- 1 Hour Before Departure: Be at the gate, ready to board.

Remote Bag Drop

In time for the big event, LAS has unveiled a remote bag drop and check-in option. Located at the Airport Rent-A-Car Center and the Terminal 3 Departures curbside, passengers of select domestic airlines can check their luggage, skip the ticket counter and head directly to the security checkpoint. Bags must be checked-in at least 90 minutes prior to the flight's scheduled departure time. There is no charge for the service, however baggage fees assessed by the airlines still apply.

Hours of Operation:

Airport Rent-A-Car Center: 4 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Terminal 3 Departures: 4 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Be Checkpoint Ready

If traveling through the airport with a Super Bowl program, please remember that they must be placed in a carry-on. For other questions about carry-on and checked luggage, visit TSA.gov.
