LAS VEGAS -- Every year, thousands of consumers are ripped off by scam artists. Saturday the Fight Fraud Taskforce and the City North Las Vegas held an event to educate people one how to fight back against fraud.

As part of nationwide Consumer Protection Week volunteers gathered at the Mojave High School Saturday Morning to help people not become victimized by scammers. And while the turnout was not what they had hoped for it did not stop the workers putting on this free event from educating the one ones that came.

The event featured opportunities to learn about ID theft and Medical Fraud, Researching Records Online, Guardian Services for seniors, Taking Charge of Utility Bills, and Alternatives to Foreclosure and Foreclosures Scams.
