1. Review and finalize the FY 22-23 budget request(s) and take public input regarding the budget request(s). (For possible action)

Mark Moskowitz said there is a list and the board is currently prioritizing the top 15 listed for the community. Once the list is finished it will sent to the budget office for future capital improvement projects.

This item opened to public comment:

Michele Brown suggested taking the Community Center kitchen upgrades off the priority list since this is not warranted at this time.

Mr. McGinnis inquired about the lighting around the restrooms at the Searchlight Park, and why are they closed during the day.

Michele Brown with Parks and Recreation said at this time there is not any staff for the maintenance but if there is an event she could open the restrooms for the event only.

The TAB members numbered their priorities on the Budget Request Form and will be submitted to the appropriate departments. Three items were removed and approved by the STAB members with a voice vote 5-0.
