- V. Informational Items
 1. Received a report from Sandy Valley Volunteer Fire Department; Chief Ken Smith reported calls for September, reminded everyone to check their furnaces before turning on their heat, and announced the SVVFD Annual Balloon Fest for November 5th, then was available for questions. On another note he asked that if you are reporting a fire, do not do it on social media or calling the fire department phone number, please call 911.
 2. Received a report from Metro; Officer Hoffman announced they had nothing to report but he was available for questions.
 3. Received a report from Sandy Valley School; Brian Kahre announced Homecoming was this weekend and for more schedules you can visit the school website athletics page.
 4. Received a report from Parks and Recreation; Meggan Holzer announced October 29th there will be another movie in the park...Beetlejuice.
 5. There was no report from Valley Electric.

6. Received a report from County Administration; Meggan Holzer reported Family Dollar is looking very nice inside but they do not currently have an opening date at this time. She stated there is a plan for a Grand Opening and she will post on Facebook as soon as she knows. There is no update on the pass except it is in the engineering stage. The vet clinic event was a huge success, they vaccinated about 162 animals. Gail Beckman read her news release regarding the event. CAC applications are available online at the County website and need to be turned in by the end of November.

VI Planning and Zoning
None

VII General Business

1. Received input regarding requests for the upcoming budget cycle; it was suggested to add a chip reader for animals, Christmas lights on Quartz, straighten SV Road at KMI and pave Iroquis or Miami north of Quartz to accommodate the growth of the school and how buses will be dropping students. A motion to accept the additions was made.

VIII Comments by the General Public; Al Marquis introduced some new Sandy Valley residents. James Boyle of BLM came to report on the fire restrictions and reminded everyone of OHV safety. Stephanie Salinas-Byrd spoke on behalf of the post office. She stated the best address practice would be putting your street address along with your box number for better service. Glenda Conway shares an issue with flooding in her area at the north end of the zigzag. She shared a map showing the flow of water and what changed it in the last couple of years. Christine Brown announced a Fall Fest at the Community Church on October 29th and a free Thanksgiving dinner sponsored by the Community Church at the Senior Center on November 19th from 3-6 pm. Electra Smith announced Santa's Toy box will have the Angel Tree at the Post Office this year. Gail Beckman announced a candidate mix and mingle tomorrow at the Senior Center at 6:30 p.m. Halloween on October 31st with a haunted house, costume parade, and photo shoot. The Winter Festival will be on December 3rd, Gail's idea is to have an animal for mayor election. There was discussion to collaborate the vaccination clinic with the pet mayor idea. Marianne Donnelly handed out information to the CAC members and shared her concerns about the military operations that have recently taken place and the impact on the community.

IX Next Meeting Date
Due to the next meeting happening during the voting, the November meeting has been canceled. The next regular meeting will be December 13, 2022.
